

Are you looking for a career in the rapidly growing game-worn sports memorabilia industry?

Are you looking to join a fast-moving company synonymous with absolute integrity whose reputation as best in class is growing worldwide?

MeiGray is hiring!

The industry leader celebrating its 25th year as the world's most reliable sports authenticator for game-worn items is growing rapidly. We are looking for enthusiastic and hungry sports memorabilia enthusiasts from inside and outside the hobby.

We are looking for entry-level college graduates and experienced sports enthusiasts. We are looking for young people eager to learn, and veterans in the sports memorabilia space looking to join a rapidly growing company that can promise the chance for promotion, very competitive salaries, health and retirement benefits, and much more.

- We are looking for salespeople, polished individuals who love interacting with clients.
- We are looking for authenticators, serious people who know how to research, are disciplined, love attention to detail, and understand the importance of absolute authenticity and integrity.
- We are looking for operations and warehouse employees who understand the importance of organization and customer satisfaction.
- We are looking for Summer Interns, students looking for experience, who deserve to be paid for their youthful enthusiasm and hard work.

Does any of this sound like you?
