NBA Game-Used Leader Game Used Tone inks Exclusive Game Used Shoe Partnership with NBA Superstar Luka Doncic

DALLAS, TX – Game Used Tone announced today that it has created an NBA Game-Used Shoes partnership with Dallas Mavericks superstar Luka Doncic. Through Game-Used Tone's partnership with the MeiGray Game-Used Shoes Authentication Program, fans and collectors around the globe will get first crack at fully authenticated game-used shoes worn by Doncic in official NBA games.

"We're excited to partner with Luka Doncic. Luka continues to play at an extremely high level in the NBA." said Tone Stakes, Owner of Game Used Tone. "Luka's global fan base is second to none. And the demand for his game-used shoes grows by the day."

"Our expertise is in connecting elite NBA players with the growing number of collectors all over the world, who desire properly authenticated game-used shoes directly from NBA players," Stakes added. "As the game used market continues to grow, proof of absolute authenticity has never been in greater demand and has never provided greater value added. Our partnership with MeiGray, the leader in game-used authentication, provides this unmatched level of confirmation."

Game Used Tone partners with more than 50 current and future NBA players, affording fans and collectors the opportunity to acquire fully authenticated game-used items. These partnerships include some of the top NBA Draft picks eligible for the 2020 NBA Draft, including Deni Avdija, RJ Hampton, Jalen Smith, Nico Mannion, Cassius Stanley, Immanuel Quickley and Ashton Hagans.

Go to GameUsedTone.com to find game used shoes from elite NBA players including a variety of rare player exclusive colorways (PEs) and limited-edition release sneakers. The partnership represents the effort of Game Used Tone to bring fans closer to the game by providing unique one-of-a-kind game-used items for purchase.
